

Ever felt unsure
about supporting your child's education?

You're not alone!

Many parents share this feeling, but CPLAN is here
to change that.

Educators must rely on parents and other adults in a child's life to provide care and guidance during out-of-school time. Yet parents face many challenges in advocating for their children, and schools face many challenges engaging families.

We believe every family has the power to make a positive difference in their child's educational journey, and we're here to empower you with the tools and confidence to do just that!

ABOUT US

CPLAN is an organization led by parents using lived experience to work in partnership with schools, parents, community leaders, and legislators, to achieve equity in education.

At CPLAN, our mission is simple yet profound:

To ensure every child receives an exciting, well-rounded and equitable education that prepares them for whatever path they choose in life.

THE CHALLENGE

PARENTS ARE FEELING...

WHY CHOOSE CPLAN?

At CPLAN, we're all about empowering parents and families with the skills and courage they need to take control of their child's educational journey. We believe that when parents are equipped with the right tools, they become their child's ultimate lifelong heroes!

We recognize that strong partnerships between families and schools are essential for achieving this goal. By fostering collaboration and communication between home and school, we can provide children with the support they need to thrive academically, socially, and emotionally.

Together, we can create a brighter future for all children.
